

Master Data Management (Computerized Systems) – Strategic Consultancy

By implementing an strategic assessments, it will be possible to ensure seamless integration of Computerized Systems and the establish a robust Data Governance framework. With a focus on Risk-Assessment, Training and Change Management, we empower your team to implement and adopt efficient Master Data practices

Strategic Data Assessment

Our consultants conduct a strategic assessment of your organization's data landscape. We identify critical data elements, assess data quality, and define a roadmap for effective master data management aligned with industry standards.

Customized System Integration

Zamann Pharma Support GmbH supports the seamless integration of master data management systems tailored to your organization's needs. We ensure that systems are configured to capture, store, and maintain master data efficiently, fostering accuracy and consistency across operations.

Data Governance Framework

Implement a robust data governance framework with our support. We guide the development of policies, procedures, and controls to ensure the integrity, security, and accessibility of master data. This framework aligns with regulatory requirements and industry best practices.

Training and Change Management

Our service includes comprehensive training programs and change management strategies to empower your team in adopting master data management practices. We facilitate a smooth transition, ensuring that personnel are well-equipped to use and maintain master data systems effectively.

